Notice under National Electricity Rule 4A.C.5 that the reliability gap is no longer forecast to occur

Terms used in this notice have the same meanings as defined in the National Electricity Law (NEL) and National Electricity Rules (NER).

On 28 November 2023, the Australian Energy Regulator (AER) triggered the Retailer Reliability Obligation (RRO) by making a T-3 Reliability Instrument for South Australia for certain trading periods during the period from 1 December 2026 to 28 February 2027 inclusive, in accordance with section 14K of the NEL and Chapter 4A, Part C, Division 2 of the NER.

AEMO hereby notifies the AER under clause 4A.C.5 of the NER that the reliability forecast in the October 2025 Update to the 2025 Electricity Statement of Opportunities, published on 1 October 2025, shows that the previously forecast reliability gap is no longer forecast to occur in South Australia from 1 December 2026 to 28 February 2027.

In accordance with clause 4A.C.5 of the NER, this notice will be published on AEMO's website.

Yours sincerely,
