

Title, page and paragraph number of document containing the confidential information	Description of the confidential information.	Topic the confidential information relates to (e.g. capex, opex, the rate of return etc.)	Identify the recognised confidentiality category that the confidential information falls within.	Provide a brief explanation of why the confidential information falls into the selected category. If information falls within 'other' please provide further details on why the information should be treated as confidential.	Specify reasons supporting how and why detriment would be caused from disclosing the confidential information.	And why detriment would be caused from disclosing the confidential information. Provide any reasons supporting why the identified detriment is not outweighed by the public benefit (especially public benefits such as the effect on the long term interests of consumers).
Attachment 1.1 – Build up of costs model – CONFIDENTIAL (Tab 'Tables for document' and 'Revenue' are non-confidential')	Cost related information	Opex and Capex	Market sensitive cost inputs	The cost information may affect AusNet's ability to obtain a competitive price in future infrastructure transactions.	Provision of this information will compromise competitive tender processes and negotiating positions.	It is in consumers' interest to deliver this project at the lowest possible cost. Provision of cost information compromises AusNet's ability to source these services competitively.
Attachment 1.2 – Build up of costs detail - CONFIDENTIAL	Cost related information	Opex and Capex	Market sensitive cost inputs	The cost information may affect AusNet's ability to obtain a competitive price in future infrastructure transactions.	Provision of this information will compromise competitive tender processes and negotiating positions.	It is in consumers' interest to deliver this project at the lowest possible cost. Provision of cost information compromises AusNet's ability to source these services competitively.
Attachment 3 – EY review of AusNet's costs - CONFIDENTIAL	The Agreed Upon Procedures report by EY is released to the AER on the basis that it is kept confidential, as outlined in the transmittal letter	Opex and capex incurred	Other	Confidentiality of the report was a condition on which the audit was conducted.	Publishing this report will breach the terms on which it has been shared.	This report is intended to provide the AER with confidence in the accuracy of the actual transactions recorded in our financial system that resulted from the January Bushfires. The AER will publish its conclusions in its determination on this matter – this is not an area that will, or can, benefit from public debate. The costs incurred have been made publicly available in the application. The report does not contain any additional relevant information that would assist stakeholders review the application.