SCHEDULE 1

MATTERS CONSTITUTING AN ALLEGED BREACH OF A CIVIL PENALTY PROVISION: RULE 124A(1) OF THE NATIONAL ENERGY RETAIL RULES

1. Momentum Energy Pty Ltd (Momentum Energy) is a 'retailer' within the meaning of section 2 of the National Energy Retail Law (Retail Law).
2. At the date of the alleged breach, version 13 of the National Energy Retail Rules (Retail Rules) applied.
3. On 17 October 2014, [REDACTED] (the customer) advised Momentum Energy, that a person residing at [REDACTED] (the premises), required life support equipment.
4. By reason of subrule 2(3)(a) of Part 9 of Schedule 3 of the Retail Rules, a registered life support customer is taken to have provided the retailer with medical confirmation that a person residing at the premises requires life support equipment, for the purposes of rule 124(1A)(b) of the Retail Rules.
5. By reason of rule 124(1A)(b) of the Retail Rules, Momentum Energy registered the customer's premises as having life support equipment, in accordance with rule 124(1) of the Retail Rules.
6. Pursuant to rule 124A(1) of the Retail Rules, Momentum Energy must ensure that registration details under rule 124 are kept up to date.
7. On 16 August 2018, during the process of changing the customer to a different energy contract, Momentum Energy removed the registration details on the customer's account which indicated that the customer's premises was registered as having life support equipment. These registration details were not included on the customer's account again until some seven months later, on 15 March 2019.
8. By removing the registration details from the customer's account that indicated that the customer's premises was registered as having life support equipment on 16 August 2018, and failing to include those registration details on the customer's account until 15 March 2019, Momentum Energy failed to ensure the customer's registration details were kept up to date.
