1.3 Minutes

- The teleconference commenced at approximately 1:35pm ACDT
- AGN (Craig de Laine) welcomed the group and thanked them for their attendance.
- AGN (Craig de Laine) spoke to the Albury and Victorian Access Arrangement Consolidation Presentation (circulated to the Group prior to the meeting). At several points during the presentation (Slide 1, Slide 10, Slide 11 and Slide 14), Craig stopped and asked the Group for feedback.
  - AGL commented that the approach seemed sensible and they had no concerns.
- AGN (Craig de Laine) provided an overview of key next steps, including AGN's intention to submit our proposal to consolidate the Victorian and Albury Access Arrangements to the Australian Energy Regulator (AER) during the week beginning 16 November 2015.
- AGN (Craig de Laine) thanked the Group for their time and advised that should they have any further feedback on the consolidation proposal, they should provide it to Kristin Raman.
- The teleconference concluded at approximately 2:00pm ACDT.

1.4 Action Items

- AGN will proceed with its proposal to the AER in relation to the consolidation of the Albury and Victorian Access Arrangements (expected to be submitted during the week beginning 16 November 2015).
- Should retailers have any further comment they will provide them to Kristin Raman (kristin.raman@agnl.com.au) – preferably prior to 16 November 2015 to allow consideration from AGN prior to submission, although AGN will accept feedback at any time.
