Pre-lodgment Stage (estimated 30% of CCP time)
Regulatory Proposal Submitted to Draft Decision Released (estimated 50% of CCP time)
Draft Decision to Final Decision (estimated 20% of CCP time)
Reset Stages
Framework and Approach (Electricity only)
Regulatory Information Notice (RIN)
Regulatory proposal development
Regulatory proposal submitted
AER Releases Issues Paper (Electricity only)
Develop draft decision
Draft decision released
Revised proposal developed
Revised proposal submitted
AER develops final determination release
AER
Engage with business
Request for Advice activates sub-panel nomination
Initial contact with CCP sub-panel re reset context & NSP
Engage with CCP through Co-ord Directors, TAG and technical workstreams
Meeting with CCP to discuss Stage 2 Schedule of Work
AER releases issues paper
AER holds public forum.
AER & CCP will meet to discuss approach, issues and current thinking
AER will release its draft decision
Revised proposal submitted
AER & CCP will continue to engage
Aer to provide verbal debrief to CCP
AER will release its final determination
AER will provide formal feedback to CCP
CCP
Stage 1 Schedule of Work - issues that engagement will focus on during the pre-lodgment stage
Engage with AER staff including TAG and technical workstreams as required
Engagement with business regarding their comsumer engagement and to understand major issues to be raised in regulatory proposal
Engage with consumers to understand consumer issues and assessment of business engagement from consumer perspective
CCP may participate in consultative groups to gain insight into consumer issues and concerns
CCP submit stage 2 Schedule of Work regarding issues to be addressed in advice
CCP and AER to meet regarding Stage 2 of Schedule of Work
Engage with business regarding issues raised in proposal and to assess whether proposal reflects consumer engagement
CCP prepares for public forum
CCP to commence work on its advice
CCP presents its view on proposal at public forum.
CCP to meet with AER Board to present their views and advice
CCP to submit its written advice to the AER as per the Schedule of Work
CCP considers draft decision and any further advice or input to the AER
CCP to consider revised proposal
Engage with consumers regarding differences in deceision and final Engage with business focussing on key differences between AER draft decision and CCP to meet with AER Board to discuss differences between CCP advice and draft decision
CCP will submits its final advice to the AER