Dear Mr Anderson

Revocation of Confidentiality Claims over Revised Regulatory Proposal Operating Expenditure Supporting Documents for Energex and Ergon Energy

Energex Limited (Energex) and Ergon Energy Corporation Limited (Ergon Energy) have reassessed the claims of confidentiality over operating expenditure (Opex) supporting documents included as part of their Revised Regulatory Proposals (RRPs) for 2020-25, submitted to the Australian Energy Regulator (AER) 10 December 2019.

The AER's Confidentiality Guideline sets out the manner by which claims of confidentiality over submitted information must be made, including the reasons to support how and why the information should be treated as confidential and why the disclosure of the information would cause detriment. Consistent with feedback received from the AER, Energex and Ergon Energy agree that any detriment caused by disclosing this information would not outweigh the public benefit of its release.

On this basis, Energex and Ergon Energy hereby rescind the claims of confidentiality over the RRP Opex supporting documentation, as listed in Attachment 1 to this letter.

If you require any additional information in relation to this matter, please contact me on

Yours sincerely
