- 15.2 A part time employee will be paid at the standard rate per hour for their classification for the position in which they are employed.
- 15.3 A part time employee will be entitled to all entitlements provided for in this Agreement on a pro-rata basis, based on the proportion of the number of hours worked per week (as agreed in accordance with clause 15.1) when compared to full-time day worker hours.
- 15.4 An employee may apply to work part time (on a temporary or permanent basis) to meet parental responsibilities. A female employee may apply to work part time where this is necessary or desirable because of her pregnancy.
- 15.5 For the purpose of graduated retirement the standard hours of work may be worked on a part time basis and these hours may be reduced progressively by agreement subject to the requirement that such employees in transition to retirement will perform mentoring duties that focus on transferring knowledge and skills to less experienced staff. 18.4 The relevant union will be consulted regarding the circumstances of each appointment to a fixed term position at a classification below the top of Zone A in Band 4 in the single salary spine structure (refer to the Single Salary Spine Policy).

19 Probation

19.1 Probation will provide a supportive process and provide an opportunity for a period of continuing employment. Probation offers a period of mutual evaluation, by either party, and a period of support for the individual, during which decisions about continuing employment can be made.

19.2 New employees will be appointed on a period of probation of nominally three months.

19.3 ActewAGL may waive the probationary period in writing, and must notify the employee of the waiver.

19.5 ActewAGL will endeavour to carry out a performance review no later than eight weeks after the commencement of probation. At the completion of the probation period:

- (b) ActewAGL may terminate the employee's employment by providing a minimum of one week's notice or payment in lieu of notice; or
- (c) the employee may resign by providing one week's notice.

20 Recruitment and Selection

by training and/or reorganising its existing workforce.
ActewAGL will keep the relevant union(s) informed about such training and reorganisation; and

- (b) peak workloads cannot be met by ActewAGL's workforce using reasonable overtime.

- 21.4 ActewAGL will ensure that contractors engaged by it have in place employee relations practices and policies which promote harmonious employee relations and minimise the risk of industrial disputes.
- 21.5 Every effort will be made by the parties to ensure the consultation period is completed within four weeks of the date that the company provides the unions with written notification of the proposal to use contractors.
- 21.6 If after engagement of a contractor a party to this Agreement provides sufficient evidence that a contractor is not providing its employees with correct statutory entitlements, ActewAGL will use an independent organisation to audit compliance with these entitlements. - 23.2 An Individual Arrangement must be genuinely agreed to by ActewAGL and the employee.
- 23.3 ActewAGL must ensure that an Individual Arrangement.

- (a) is only about matters that would be permitted matters if the Individual Arrangement were an enterprise agreement;
- (b) does not include a term that would be an unlawful term if the Individual Arrangement were an enterprise agreement; and

23.4 ActewAGL must ensure that an Individual Arrangement:

- (a) is in writing;

30 Salary Progression

Employees working under competency-based pay arrangements (Category A)

- 30.1 For employees working under competency-based pay arrangements, each classification level is linked to the attainment of particular competencies.
- 30.2 An employee will be classified based on an assessment of their competency level.
- 30.3 An employee will not be promoted to a higher classification until they have demonstrated to ActewAGL's satisfaction that they meet the full requirements of the higher skill level, and have obtained the level of competency required.
- 30.4 The training required in order to qualify for particular competencies will be determined in accordance with ActewAGL's competency framework.
- 30.5 If an employee is promoted in accordance with clause 30.3, the pay increase will be effective from the date on which the required competency is achieved by the employee and becomes available for use. If the assessment time from when claim to be assessed has been submitted exceeds one month, and the competency is subsequently achieved, the effective date of pay advancement will be set at the first pay day one month after the initial submission of the successful claim.

Employees working under the Single Salary Spine structure (Category B)

- 30.6 Upon commencement of employment, employees classified within the Single Salary Spine structure in Schedule B Part 2 of this Agreement will have their roles evaluated using the Mercer Cullen Egan Dell Job evaluation methodology. In conducting this evaluation, reference will be had to the work level descriptors contained in Schedule D of this Agreement.
- 30.7 In addition to the increases specified at clause 25.1, an employee with a base salary below the midpoint of their respective band can progress towards the midpoint by an additional annual percentage increase based on performance. This increase is based on the annual performance assessment using the existing PPDP process and is administered as follows:
- (a) an increase of salary of 1% if the employee achieved a PPDP rating of 3;
 - (b) an increase of salary of 1.5% if the employee achieved a PPDP rating of 4; or

- (c) an increase of salary of 2% if the employee achieved a PPDP rating of 5.

30.8 In order to receive an additional percentage increase in accordance with clause 30.7 above, an employee must achieve a minimum PPDP rating of 3 and not be issued with a Stage 2 or a Stage 3 warning or be placed on a Performance Management Plan during the previous 12 months.

30.9 Once an employee reaches the midpoint of their respective band, additional percentage increases will cease and the employee will resume access to the PPDP bonus structure as per clause 29.8, unless the employee elects to achieve agreed stretch targets as outlined in clause 30.10 below.

30.10 Agreed stretch targets:

- (a) An employee who is in the Single Salary Spine and their base salary is above the midpoint and below the top of their respective band may elect to achieve agreed stretch targets in addition to the PPDP process.
- (b) If the agreed stretch targets are achieved the employee will receive an additional 2% salary increase.
- (c) If the agreed stretch targets are not achieved, the employee will qualify for a bonus under clause 29.8 above.

30.11 Employee salaries in the Single Salary Spine will not progress beyond the top of their respective band.

will be paid at the base rate of that higher classification on a pro-rata basis for that period.

31.2 Where a position has been filled by an employee in an acting position for three months and it can be determined that the position being filled is a continuing one, then the position shall be advertised within or outside ActewAGL.

The advertising of the position shall take effect no later than three months from the date it was first filled on a continuous acting basis.

Nothing in this clause shall distract from ActewAGL's obligation to advertise a position once it is determined that such a position is a permanent one.

31.3 For further information on the implementation of higher duties refer to the Corporate Procedure "Recruitment and Selection to a Vacant Position".

- (a) the most economical for ActewAGL, taking into account the nature and purpose of the travel; and
 - (b) designed to meet the needs of the traveller.
- 35.3 In determining whether a business travel expense reimbursement claim is reasonable, managers should consider the purpose, specific circumstances and total costs of trips, including accommodation, taxi fares, meals and other relevant costs.

Accommodation

- 35.4 In normal circumstances, the standard of accommodation booked by employees for business travel should not be higher than a four star hotel offering government or corporate discount rates.
- 35.5 Where an employee is attending a conference held at a hotel and it is appropriate for the employee to stay at that venue, ActewAGL will pay for actual cost of accommodation at that hotel.
- 35.6 If an employee chooses to stay with colleagues, family or friends, they will not receive reimbursement in respect of accommodation costs. However, the employee may be reimbursed for other reasonable expenses actually incurred provided that this results in ActewAGL incurring a lower cost than if the employee was reimbursed for accommodation costs.

Meal and Incidental Allowances

- 35.7 Subject to clause 35.9, any meal and other incidental allowances paid by ActewAGL will be set in accordance with the rates determined by the Australian Taxation Office from time to time.

36.3 Employees can salary sacrifice up to 100% of their remuneration package subject to applicable superannuation legislation.

36.4 Employees contemplating entering salary sacrifice arrangements should seek independent financial advice before entering these arrangements.

36.5 Employees are responsible for the payment of any Fringe Benefits Tax which applies to a salary sacrifice arrangement.

36.6 Where an employee's net salary is reduced through a salary sacrifice arrangement, the employee's salary for the purposes of:

- (a) calculating superannuation contributions;
- (b) payout of leave as part of an employee's final pay; and
- (c) calculating leave,

will be the salary that would have been paid to the employee in the absence of salary sacrifice.

Novated Leasing of Vehicles

The choice of superannuation funds is limited to those funds that allow employee and employer contributions to be paid fortnightly through electronic funds transfer. If the employee does not nominate a fund within this period, they will be enrolled in ActewAGL's default superannuation fund, currently Equip Super. ActewAGL will consult with the parties to the Agreement in the event they propose to change the default fund.

Conditions related to change of state of Icon Water and ActewAGL Superannuation

- 37.5 Should Icon Water and/or ActewAGL change ownership, or otherwise change legal status during the life of this Agreement, conditions within clauses 37.6 to 37.10 will apply.
- 37.6 If the employer parties to this agreement change during the life of this agreement so that Icon Water is no longer an employer party and the other employer parties cannot contribute to the CSS and PSS, Icon Water shall ensure that compensation is paid to its employees who are CSS or PSS members as follows:
- 37.7 Icon Water shall ensure that the employer parties provide a fund option to employees who were members of the CSS and PSS that will provide a benefit at resignation and/or retirement that would be the equivalent to that which the employee would have received if they remained in the CSS or PSS. - 38.1 ActewAGL will provide employees with income protection insurance cover. If ActewAGL cannot obtain this insurance through a third party insurance provider, ActewAGL will provide the insurance itself.
- 38.2 The insurance will provide any employee who is injured (either at work or otherwise), or who is ill, and unable to work as a result, with payments equal to 100% of the employee's pre-injury weekly earnings for up to three years from the date the employee was first unable to work.
- 38.3 Payments will commence two weeks after the date the employee was first unable to work. During the first two weeks, the employee may take personal leave or other paid or unpaid leave.
- 38.4 Employees aged over 65 will be covered for:
- (a) Accident up to age 70 with a maximum benefit of two years from the date the employee was first unable to work due to the accident, and

- 38.8 For the purpose of determining the shortfall referred to in clause 38.7, pre-injury weekly earnings means the employee's average weekly earnings (including overtime, shift loadings and allowances) averaged over:
- (a) the 12 months preceding the disablement; or
 - (b) if the employee has been employed by ActewAGL for less than 12 months – the employee's period of employment with ActewAGL.

- 39.4 If an employee will be unable to attend for duty at their normal starting time, the employee must notify their supervisors of this within two hours of their normal starting time.
- 39.5 In developing work rosters, and in particular rosters which contain shifts in excess of eight hours and up to twelve hours, regard will be had to the safety and health of employees.
- 39.6 The parties bound agree to continue discussion on annualised salaries during the term of this Agreement. For the purpose of determining an appropriate salary the agreed principles relating to annualised salaries are provided in the paper titled "Annualised Salary principles" tabled at the SBU in the corporate document management system.

Flexible Standard Hours

- 39.7 To facilitate employee work life balance, an employee who is not a shift worker may vary the times at which they start and end their standard hours of work provided that their standard hours are worked within the 6am to 6pm bandwidth. Working of flexible standard hours is subject to the following conditions:
- (a) the employee must work the number of standard hours per week that apply to their position;
 - (b) flexible standard hours may be requested by an employee and must be approved in writing by the employee's manager or supervisor;
 - (c) approval will be subject to operational requirements and business efficiency;

- (d) a manager or supervisor may, in giving their approval, impose conditions which limit the flexibility (for example by requiring the employee to work set core hours);
- (e) if this clause or any flexibility arrangement implemented pursuant to this clause, is inconsistent with another clause contained in this Agreement, the other clause will prevail; and
- (f) an employee's manager or supervisor may revoke an approval to work flexible standard hours in order to meet operational requirements or business needs, by giving the employee four weeks' notice.

40 Meal breaks

- 40.1 An interval of not less than 30 minutes shall be allowed for the midday meal.
- 40.2 An employee who works on a 12 hour shift roster will be provided with two paid meal breaks of 20 minutes duration. The first meal break will be provided within five hours of the commencement of the shift.
- 40.3 There are no fixed start and finish times for meal breaks. Work crews will stagger the time of taking meal breaks to meet operational requirements and avoid interruption to operations.
- 40.4 An employee who works on a roster, other than a 12 hour shift roster, outside the 6:00am to 6:00pm span of standard hours will be provided with a paid meal break of 30 minutes.
- 40.5 An employee shall not be compelled to work more than five hours after commencing duty without a meal break.
- 40.6 A rest period of ten minutes shall be allowed in the first half of each day or shift at a time fixed by ActewAGL.

41 Rest Breaks After Overtime

- 41.1 If an employee is required to work overtime or is called out for three hours or more, either continuously or in broken periods, between midnight and their scheduled start time on the same working day, the employee will be released from duty, without loss of pay, until they have had ten consecutive hours off duty (inclusive of travelling time).
- 41.2 An employee may resume work without having ten consecutive hours off duty (inclusive of travelling time) if the employee's supervisor determines that the employee is fit to remain at work and will be able to work safely. If this occurs, the employee will be paid at double their standard rate until they are released from duty for ten consecutive hours (inclusive of travelling time). These arrangements are subject to the ruling that when an employee has been working for 16 hours they will cease work.

- 41.3 An employee's supervisor may direct an employee to take a rest break before recommencing normal duties without loss of pay for standard working time if the supervisor considers that it would be unsafe for an employee to carry out their normal duties safely due to the amount of overtime and/or call-outs completed by the employee outside their standard hours of work.
- 41.4 An employee who works so much overtime between the termination of their standard work on one day and the commencement of their standard work on the next day that they have not had at least ten consecutive hours (inclusive of travelling time) off duty, shall be released after completion of the overtime until they have had ten consecutive hours (inclusive of travelling time) off duty without loss of pay for standard working time.

 - (b) double time for any additional hours of overtime worked, Monday to Friday;
 - (c) double time for any overtime worked on Saturdays and Sundays; and
 - (d) double time and a half for hours worked on a public holiday.
- 43.2 The level of remuneration provided to employees classified above the top of ActewAGL Level 4 Zone B in Schedule B (Part 2) including salary, allowances and other benefits, reflects an expectation that these employees will be required to work reasonable overtime over and above the standard hours of work as specified in clause 39 on a regular basis. Overtime, over and above the standard hours of work as specified in clause 39, are recognised and compensated through time off in lieu of extra hours worked by agreement with their supervisor.

- 43.3 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all time worked outside the standard hours of work shall be paid at the rate contained in clause 43.1 above. In computing overtime, each day's work shall stand alone.
- 43.4 Overtime for shift workers is all time worked outside their normal shift roster.
- 43.5 Employees who continue to work beyond five hours without a meal break shall be entitled to time and a half until released for a meal.
- 43.6 Overtime shall be calculated to the nearest quarter of an hour.

Meal allowance and crib break on overtime

- 43.7 An employee shall be entitled to a paid 20 minute crib break and a meal allowance of $14.75 if the employee is required to perform overtime duty outside standard working hours where they:

- 43.10 Meal allowance shall not apply if ActewAGL supplies a meal or meals.
- 43.11 Employees who are classified above the overtime barrier (clause 43.2) shall be entitled to a meal allowance as outlined above.

Minimum overtime payment

- 43.12 An employee shall be paid a minimum of 4 hours at the prescribed overtime rates if the period of overtime the employee is required to work is not connected to standard hours of work, provided that the employee is not in receipt of any stand by or on call allowances pursuant to this Agreement.
- 43.13 If ActewAGL cancels a period of prearranged overtime for any reason, an employee who has reported for work may be required to carry out alternative work for a minimum of 4 hours. Employees who refuse to do such work are not entitled to an overtime payment.

44 48/52 Flexible Work Scheme

- 44.1 The 48/52 flexible work scheme is to be available to all employees covered by this Agreement.
- 44.2 ActewAGL must approve a particular employee participating in the 48/52 flexible work scheme. In deciding whether to give its approval, ActewAGL will take into account operational requirements and increased flexibility options and choice for the employee.
- 44.3 An employee working in accordance with this arrangement will receive 48/52 of their annual salary across the 52 week period and will have access to an additional 20 days leave per annum which will accrue progressively during the year.
- 44.4 The additional leave must be rostered and taken at a time or times that does not disrupt customer service.
- 44.5 An application to participate in the 48/52 flexible work scheme will be treated as an application for fractional time appointment. Employees participating in the 48/52 flexible work scheme will be required to enter into an administrative arrangement with ActewAGL to receive their reduced annual salary in 26 equal instalments.
- 44.6 The term of an employee's participation in the 48/52 flexible work scheme must be agreed by the employee and ActewAGL management. However, the minimum term will usually be one year, and the total term will usually be multiple consecutive six month periods. The employee or ActewAGL may vary the agreed term by agreement providing the other party with three months' notice.
- 44.7 Employee participation in the scheme is optional. No employee currently employed on a full time basis will be required to work according to the 48/52 flexible work scheme, or transferred to another position to enable the 48/52 flexible work scheme to be implemented.
- 44.8 This clause does not preclude an employee from being granted periods of leave of greater or lesser than 20 days by arrangement with their Manager. Employees who do seek greater or lesser periods of leave will be informed of the impact of this leave on their entitlements and salary before leave is approved.
- 44.9 Additional leave accrued as a result of the employee's participation in the 48/52 flexible work scheme should generally be taken by the employee prior to them ceasing to participate in the scheme. However, in exceptional circumstances, ActewAGL may agree to pay out any accrued unused 48/52 leave when the employee ceases to participate in the scheme.

- (b) When employees become wet due to the performance of the work, they will be released from duty when the job is completed for a reasonable period of time, to change into dry clothing with no loss of earnings.

- 70.11 If any employee is required by the company to work in temperatures exceeding 36 degrees they must rest for one full hour for every one hour worked with no loss of earnings.
- 70.12 This clause does not preclude any individual employee from ceasing work earlier than indicated above due to health and safety reasons when distressed by the inclement climatic conditions. Line supervision, health and safety staff as appropriate, shall be informed of such cessation of work.

K TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

71 Notice of Termination by ActewAGL

71.1 Where ActewAGL terminates the employment of a permanent full time or part time employee, the employee is entitled to a period of notice of termination or a payment in lieu of notice calculated as follows:

Length of continuous service with ActewAGL	Period of Notice
Not more than 1 year	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

71.2 If an employee is over 45 years of age and has completed not less than two years continuous service at the time notice of termination is given, the employee will be entitled to an additional week's notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice.

71.3 The period of notice in this clause does not apply in the case of dismissal for serious misconduct.

71.4 Payment in lieu of the notice will be made if ActewAGL does not require the employee to work out the notice period. ActewAGL may require an employee to work out part of the notice period, and make payment in lieu of the balance of the notice period.

71.5 Any payment in lieu of notice will be calculated based on the employee's full rate of pay (including incentive-based payments and bonuses, loadings, monetary allowances, overtime and penalty rates and any other separately identifiable amounts) for the hours that the employee would have worked had their employment continued until the end of the notice period.

71.6 Clauses 71.1 to 71.5 will not apply to the following groups of employees:

- (a) casual employees;
- (b) an employee (other than an apprentice) to whom a training arrangement applies and whose employment is for a specified period of time or is, for any reason, limited to the duration of the training arrangement;
- (c) employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specified task; and
- (d) employees who are voluntarily retrenched (the termination notice entitlement for these employees is provided for in clause 76.6).

71.7 For the purpose of this clause continuous service shall be given the meaning under section 22 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

72 Notice of termination by employee

72.1 An employee who resigns must provide ActewAGL with the amount of notice specified in clause 71.1 above. However, an employee aged over 45 years is not required to give an additional notice.

72.2 If an employee fails to give ActewAGL the amount of notice required in accordance with clause 71.1, ActewAGL may withhold from the employee's pay:

- (a) an amount equal to the standard time rate of pay for the period of notice; and
- (b) payment in respect of any leave entitlements that would have accrued during the part of the notice period foregone.

73 Time off during notice period

73.1 Where ActewAGL gives an employee notice, the employee will be allowed up to one day of leave without loss of pay during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment.

73.2 This leave must be taken at a time or times agreed to by the employee and ActewAGL.

74 Unused Personal Leave Payout

74.1 An employee who:

- (a) resigns;
- (b) retires; or
- (c) is retrenched,

will receive an amount equivalent to one week's base salary for every 500 hours of accrued unused personal leave that the employee has at the date their employment with ActewAGL ends. A pro-rata payment will be made for any additional accrued unused personal leave of less than 500 hours.

L REDUNDANCY

75 Consultation

75.1 Where an organisational restructure is likely to result in positions occupied by employees becoming redundant, the following consultation process will be followed:

- (a) the General Manager of the area concerned, once they have determined the most appropriate structure, including the mix of skills and numbers of employees, will discuss the proposals with the relevant employees and the relevant union(s);
- (b) the restructuring proposals of individual divisions or part thereof will be collated into an overall plan that identifies the problem clearly. This plan will be discussed with the relevant employees and the relevant union(s); and
- (c) ActewAGL will advise relevant employees and unions if restructuring proposals are being prepared, and will allow those employees and unions to provide input before the proposals are finalised.

As part of this consultation:

- (d) the relevant unions will be consulted regarding the appropriate mechanisms for selecting the employees who will be retrenched; and
- (e) relevant employees and relevant unions will be provided with:
 - (i) ActewAGL's reasons for considering that a position or positions are likely to be excess to requirements;
 - (ii) the number, classification, location and details of the employees whose positions are likely to be excess to requirements; and
 - (iii) where changes in the staffing structure are proposed - the number and classification of employees in the part of the organisation affected, the number and classification of employees expected to be required for the performance of any continuing functions in the part of the organisation affected, and details of the employees who are likely to be affected.

75.2 Consultation with the relevant unions will include discussion of:

- (a) measures that could be taken to remove or reduce the incidence of positions becoming excess;
- (b) redeployment prospects within ActewAGL for the employees concerned; and
- (c) the appropriateness of using voluntary retrenchment.
- (d) ActewAGL will consult with the relevant unions on the identity of a job search provider in the event that redeployment is unavailable within ActewAGL.

75.3 The discussion referred to in clause 75.2 will take place over a reasonable period of time, having regard to the particular matters under discussion and to the need for potential excess staff situations to be resolved quickly.

75.4 An employee will not, during the four week period following the start of the consultation referred to in clause 75.1(a), be:

- (a) invited to volunteer for retrenchment; or
- (b) formally advised that their position is excess to ActewAGL's requirements.

75.5 Where ActewAGL or a related entity offers an employee whose position has been declared redundant a position with terms and conditions of employment that are substantially similar to and considered on an overall basis no less favourable than the employee's existing position, and the employee declines to accept the position offered then they will not be eligible to receive a retrenchment payment.

75.6 ActewAGL will not provide an employee with redundancy pay under clause 76 or 77 in the circumstances prescribed by section 122 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

75.7 Eligible employee: An employee other than:

- (a) A probationary employee;
- (b) A temporary employee; and
- (c) A casual employee is an eligible employee.

75.8 Excess employee: An employee is an excess employee if:

- (a) the employee is included in a class of employees employed in ActewAGL, which class comprises a greater number of employees than is necessary for the efficient and economical working of ActewAGL; or
- (b) the service of the employee cannot be effectively used because of technological or other changes in the work methods of ActewAGL or changes in the nature, extent or organisation of the functions of ActewAGL; or
- (c) the duties usually performed by the employee are to be performed at a different locality, the employee is not willing to perform duties at the locality and the Chief Executive has determined the provision of this clause apply to that employee.

76 Voluntary Retrenchment

76.1 Subject to clause 75.4, ActewAGL may, after undertaking consultation in accordance with clause 75, invite employees to volunteer to be retrenched in accordance with this clause.

76.2 Where ActewAGL invites an employee to volunteer to be retrenched, the employee will have one month to advise ActewAGL of their decision. ActewAGL will not give the employee notice of retrenchment before the end of this one month period.

76.3 ActewAGL will, in its discretion, decide whether to accept or decline an application for voluntary retrenchment.

76.4 Employees who may be considering voluntary redundancy should seek financial advice prior to making their decision. ActewAGL will reimburse (on production of receipts) up to $600 per employee for such financial advice.

76.5 Nothing in this Agreement will prevent ActewAGL from inviting employees whose positions are not excess to requirements from expressing interest in voluntary retrenchment, in accordance with this clause, if such retrenchment would permit the redeployment of employees whose positions are excess to requirements and who do not wish to be voluntarily retrenched.

Notice of termination

76.6 If ActewAGL approves an application for voluntary retrenchment, the employee will be given five weeks' notice (or payment in lieu of notice). ActewAGL may require an employee to work for part of the notice period and provide the employee with payment in lieu of the balance of the notice period.

76.7 Any payment in lieu of notice will be calculated based on the salary that the employee would have received had they been on annual leave during the notice period or the unexpired portion of the notice period (as appropriate).

Redundancy pay

76.8 An employee retrenched in accordance with this clause will, on termination, be paid a sum equal to:

- (a) 3 weeks' salary for each completed year of continuous service; plus
- (b) a pro rata payment for each full month of service in any period of less than 12 months continuous service, subject to a minimum payment of 3 weeks' salary and a maximum payment of 87 weeks' salary.

76.9 For the purpose of calculating any payment under clause 76.8:

- (a) where an employee has been acting in a higher position for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately preceding the date on which they receive notice of retrenchment, the salary level will be the employee's salary in the higher position at that date; and
- (b) where an employee, during 50% or more of the pay periods in the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which they receive notice of retrenchment, has been paid a loading for shift work, the weekly average amount of shift loading received by the employee during that 12 month period will be counted as part of the employee's weekly salary.

76.10 If an employee volunteers to be retrenched, and ActewAGL agrees to this, the employee will not be entitled to access entitlements provided for in clause 77.

77 Involuntary Retrenchment

77.1 If an employee is retrenched, other than in accordance with clause 76, they will be entitled to receive a severance payment as calculated in accordance with the table below. The payment will be based on the employee's base rate of pay for their standard weekly hours of work at the time their employment is terminated.

78 Leave and Expenses to Seek Employment

78.1 An employee will, from the date they receive written notice of termination from ActewAGL, be entitled to take leave with full pay to attend job interviews. The amount of leave will be determined by agreement between the employee and their supervisor.

78.2 The employee will be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable travel and incidental expenses incurred in attending an interview, provided that those expenses are not met by the prospective employer.

79 Re-employment

79.1 If an employee is retrenched, no employer party to this Agreement will employ, or engage in any other capacity (including as an independent contractor), the employee for at least 12 months following the retrenchment.

M DISPUTE PREVENTION AND RESOLUTION

80 Dispute Prevention and Resolution

80.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under this Agreement; or
- (b) the National Employment Standards, this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

80.2 The persons and organisations covered by this Agreement agree to facilitate the constructive and speedy resolution of any grievance or issue of concern at the workplace to which these procedures apply.

80.3 The persons and organisations covered by this Agreement agree to undertake all necessary steps to ensure that all relevant issues receive prompt attention and are resolved by the internal settlement of the issues.

80.4 Every effort will be made to ensure that Stages 1, 2 and 3 (described below) are completed within seven working days of a dispute being raised, and to prevent escalation of any dispute.

Stage 1

80.5 The employee and/or union delegate must provide the employee's immediate supervisor with a completed "ActewAGL Grievance Report Form" which:

- (a) describes the substance of the dispute;
- (b) requests a meeting or bilateral discussion; and
- (c) describes the remedy sought.

80.6 If ActewAGL wishes to raise a dispute, it will do so by providing the relevant employee(s) and organisations covered by this Agreement with written notice.

80.7 The parties should attempt to settle the dispute at the workplace level.

Stage 2

80.8 If the dispute cannot be resolved in Stage 1, the employee and/or delegate must meet with the next level of management.

Stage 3

80.9 If the dispute cannot be resolved in Stage 2, the employee and/or relevant union organiser (or delegate) will meet with management and the relevant General Manager.

Stage 4

80.10 If the dispute cannot be resolved in Stage 3, the employee or union organiser (as appropriate) will meet with the Director People and Performance (or their delegate) and the relevant General Manager.

Stage 5

80.11 If the dispute cannot be resolved in Stage 4, a party to the dispute may refer it to the Fair Work Commission (FWC).

80.12 The FWC will refrain from further dealing with the dispute and dismiss the dispute where the initiating party has applied, or applies, to have the dispute reviewed by a court or tribunal.

80.13 Subject to clause 80.12, the FWC may deal with a dispute referred to it under 80.11 in two stages:

- (a) the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and
- (b) if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, it/they may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

80.14 Subject to any appeal, the parties to the dispute agree to be bound by any decision or direction made by the FWC in accordance with this clause.

80.15 Each party to the dispute will bear its own costs, including but not limited to, the costs associated with being represented in proceedings before the FWC.

80.16 While the parties to a dispute are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:

- (a) An employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health and safety; and
- (b) An employee must comply with a direction given by the employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe;

- (ii) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed;
- (iii) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
- (iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

81 Discipline Procedure for Misconduct

81.1 Misconduct is when an employee behaves in a way that is a dereliction of duty or is wilful conduct that is unsatisfactory by the standards ActewAGL has a right to expect from employees.

81.2 Examples of behaviour which may be considered as possible misconduct include:

- (a) conduct which is an impediment to the satisfactory performance of the work of the employee or other employees of ActewAGL;
- (b) failure to comply with a reasonable instruction given by a person in line management of the employee;
- (c) bullying behaviour that may be reasonably perceived as harassing, intimidating, overbearing or physically or emotionally threatening, or other unsatisfactory conduct;
- (d) an action of the employee which is prejudicial to the general health or safety of other employees or members of the public; and/or
- (e) conduct of the employee that results in a conviction, sentence or other order imposed by a court which restricts the activities of the employee in a manner that constitutes an impediment to the employee carrying out their duties.

General Discipline Procedure for Misconduct

81.3 A clear and effective discipline procedure is fundamental in achieving efficiency, safety and sound employee relations. Disciplinary action is normally only necessary where the informal counselling of an employee has been unsuccessful. The most effective method of correcting inappropriate behaviour is by rewarding or acknowledging appropriate behaviour.

81.4 The following disciplinary procedure shall be applied in the event of an employee's misconduct.

Stages of Discipline

81.5 Depending on the seriousness of the misconduct, the disciplinary procedure may be initiated at any stage 1, 2 or 3, or may involve summary dismissal. Where demotion or dismissal may be contemplated, a full investigation of the circumstances should be undertaken, with the employee and union able to confront and counter any evidence of the misconduct.

Stage 1 - Counselling

81.6 In this stage, the employee's supervisor will attempt to establish if there are reasons behind the misconduct. The supervisor must make a genuine attempt to understand the employee's behaviour. Having genuinely attempted to establish the cause of the misconduct, the supervisor can ascertain whether or not ActewAGL is able to assist the employee. The employee (and their representative, if any) should be informed on completion of this stage.

Stage 2 - First Warning

81.7 Where misconduct is repeated or continues, the employee will be given a formal written warning by management which indicates clearly to the employee:

- (a) what is expected and required of them;
- (b) description of the misconduct;
- (c) that they must not engage in the misconduct;
- (d) what ActewAGL will do to support them; and
- (e) what the consequences will be if they engage in misconduct again.

81.8 This warning is to be issued in the presence of:

- (a) the employee's Supervisor or Branch Manager; and
- (b) the relevant union organiser or delegate if requested by the employee.

81.9 In the event that there is no repetition of misconduct for a period of six months, the warning will lapse.

Stage 3 - Final Warning

81.10 This is the final written warning before further action is taken by management. The employee is informed in writing that if, after the completion of an investigation and consultation with the employee's union if requested by the employee, there is a repetition of misconduct, the employee will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, which is limited to suspension, demotion, transfer or dismissal.

81.11 This final written warning is also to be given in the presence of:

- (a) the employee's Supervisor or Branch Manager; and
- (b) the relevant union organiser or delegate if requested by the employee.

81.12 In the event that there is no repetition of misconduct for a period of 12 months, the warning will lapse.

Repetition of Misdemeanours After Lapse of Warnings

81.13 Should the employee, through their actions, indicate a failure to improve performance, and appear to be abusing the warning system:

- (a) the situation will then be resolved through discussion between the relevant General Manager, Director People and Performance, relevant employee and, if requested by the employee, the relevant union organiser or delegate; and
- (b) the use of ongoing warnings to the employee will be reviewed.

Degrees of Discipline

81.14 Appropriate disciplinary action must be chosen for each misdemeanour. Different circumstances in each case make it impossible to generalise about which action is appropriate. Listed below however, are some guidelines for the assistance of supervisors.

81.15 Minor misconduct - work through all stages of disciplinary process from stage 1, for example:

- (a) continued absenteeism;
- (b) poor time keeping;
- (c) minor breach of safety regulation; or
- (d) leaving workplace without permission.

81.16 Serious misconduct - where it may be appropriate to bypass the counselling stage and commence the process at stage 2 or 3, depending on the circumstances. It may be necessary to give a first or last warning to the employee, for example in cases of:

- (a) negligence;
- (b) malingering; or
- (c) abusing or intimidating other members of staff or the public.

81.17 Conduct that might be unlawful - where it may be necessary to proceed to summarily dismiss employee, for example:

- (a) major breach of safety requirements (e.g. deliberate contravention of permit procedures);
- (b) deliberately damaging ActewAGL property and/or personal property;
- (c) fraud (e.g. falsifying documents);
- (d) assaulting other members of staff or the public; or
- (e) theft.

Protective Clothing and Equipment

81.18 All employees must wear and use such protective clothing as is required to ensure safe performance of work. The current arrangements for the quantity issued and its replacement will continue. The HSE committees in each area will make recommendations to management on changes to protective clothing and equipment and the quantity to be issued to improve safe performance of work.

81.19 The following disciplinary procedure will apply in situations where employees cannot provide any good reason for not wearing and/or using prescribed clothing and/or equipment.

First Offence:

- (a) the employee will be immediately suspended, without pay, and will not be allowed to resume any duty until they are properly attired with the prescribed protective clothing and equipment for the duties to be performed;
- (b) the employee will be counselled by their appropriate manager and warned of the consequences of a further breach of rules on the use of protective clothing or equipment;
- (c) the matter will be formally recorded and acknowledged by the employee. Details will then be placed on the employee's personal file, with a copy being forwarded direct to the employee; and
- (d) in the event that there is no repetition of inappropriate behaviours for a period of 12 months, the warning will lapse.

Second Offence:

- (e) the employee will be immediately suspended, without pay, and will not be allowed to resume any duty until they are properly attired with the prescribed protective clothing and equipment for the duties to be performed;

- (f) the employee will be counselled by their appropriate supervisor and Branch Manager and advised that dismissal may result if the employee is guilty of a further breach of protective clothing or equipment requirements;
- (g) the matter will be formally recorded and acknowledged by the employee. Details will then be placed on the employee's personal file, with a copy being forwarded direct to the employee; and
- (h) in the event that there is no repetition of inappropriate behaviours for a period of 12 months, the warning will lapse.

Third Offence:

- (i) the employee will be immediately suspended without pay;
- (j) a report will be provided to the appropriate General Manager detailing all previous counselling provided to the employee as a result of the employee's failure to adhere to the requirements of this Agreement; and
- (k) on the basis of this report, the surrounding circumstances and all other relevant information, the General Manager may dismiss the employee.

82 Managing Unsatisfactory Performance

82.1 For the purposes of this clause, unsatisfactory performance occurs when an employee does not perform their job to a satisfactory standard due to lack of competency, skill, knowledge, or understanding of their position. It does not mean unsatisfactory performance that is the result of misconduct.

82.2 The process of performance management is not intended to punish an employee, but to assist the employee to overcome performance problems and satisfy job expectations.

82.3 Employees are entitled to a position description that clearly states the requirements of their position.

82.4 Employees are responsible for performing their positions effectively and efficiently to a standard that is at least satisfactory.

82.5 If an employee is assessed by their supervisor or manager as not performing their position to a satisfactory standard, the following stages apply.

Stage 1

- 82.6 Counsel the employee about their performance and attempt to ascertain their understanding of the requirements.
- 82.7 Attempt to ascertain whether there are any work-related or non-work issues contributing to the poor performance.
- 82.8 Develop a performance management plan designed to give the employee an opportunity to improve and demonstrate that improvement.
- 82.9 The performance management plan must provide a time frame for improvement of at least 8 weeks up to a maximum of 6 months having regard to the performance problems and the circumstances and relevant details of the employment.
- 82.10 The performance management plan must be specific. It should include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following strategies:
- (a) coaching or mentoring by a senior or more experienced employee;
 - (b) additional training relevant to the performance problem;
 - (c) short term specific tasks with clearly defined outcomes which must be satisfactorily achieved by the employee;
 - (d) short term transfer to another work area to gain skills relevant to the performance problem;
 - (e) counselling through the employee assistance program;
 - (f) a warning that failure to improve within the required time frame may lead to:
 - (i) transfer to another job or work area.
 - (ii) demotion; or
 - (iii) termination of employment.

Stage 2

- 82.11 If an employee fails to improve their performance to a satisfactory standard, ActewAGL may:
- (a) transfer the employee to another job or work area if a suitable vacancy exists, having regard to the employee's capabilities and motivation;

- (b) demote the employee to a position if a suitable vacancy exists, having regard to the employee's capabilities and motivation; or
- (c) terminate the employee's employment once it is demonstrated that the employee, having received appropriate support, is unwilling or unable to improve.

82.12 The following pre-requisites are necessary before a termination of employment can occur:

- (a) a performance management plan must have been developed and implemented specific to the employee's unsatisfactory performance;
- (b) a reasonable time frame, of at least 8 weeks up to a maximum period of 6 months having regard to the performance problems and the circumstances and relevant details of the employment, must have been provided to the employee for them to demonstrate improvement to a satisfactory standard; and
- (c) the employee must have been previously warned that failure to reach a satisfactory standard of performance within the required time frame may lead to termination of employment.

82.13 This clause will apply to employees on probation except that the maximum time frame to demonstrate improvement to a satisfactory standard will be 2 weeks during the probationary period.

83 Appealing Management Decisions

83.1 Employees may appeal certain decisions taken by management in accordance with the following provisions.

Discipline Appeal

83.2 An employee who has been disciplined has the right of appeal under the appeal provisions at clause 83.4 of the Agreement with the employee having a period of fourteen (14) working days to lodge an appeal.

Promotional Appeals

83.3 An employee may appeal against the promotion of another employee to a position within ActewAGL subject to the following conditions:

- (a) An appeal may only be made where the appellant was an applicant for the advertised position;
- (b) An appeal may only be made against a promotion to an appealable position; positions equivalent to or above the top of ActewAGL Level 4 Zone A (see Part 2 of Schedule B) are not appealable;

- (c) The only ground of appeal is that of greater efficiency. In this context, greater efficiency shall include consideration of all relevant matters including experience, qualifications and demonstrated ability / competence;
- (d) There is no appeal against the appointment of an external candidate to any position within ActewAGL.

An appeal must be lodged in writing to the Director People and Performance within fourteen (14) days of the promotion being notified in writing. The written appeal must provide full details, including the reasons why the appellant believes they have greater efficiency than the employee who was promoted to the position.

Grievance Appeal

83.4 An aggrieved employee may appeal a management decision, act or omission, relating to the application this Agreement or People and Performance Policies, with the employee having a period of fourteen days from the date of the decision, act or omission to lodge an appeal.

The matters that may be considered include any current decision, act or omission, relating to the application of the People and Performance Policies, Procedures or Enterprise Agreement regarding a work related matter which any ActewAGL employee considers to be unjust, discriminatory or wrongful.

Employment conditions provided within the Enterprise Agreement are not subject to grievance appeals. Only the application of employment conditions are appealable.

Appeal Committee

83.5 A promotion or grievance appeal shall be processed in the following manner:

- (a) The appeal shall be heard by an ActewAGL Appeal Committee comprising:
 - i. An independent Chair (Agreed by all parties)
 - ii. One person nominated by ActewAGL
 - iii. One person nominated by the relevant union;

- (b) The nominees of ActewAGL and the employee must be persons who have no direct involvement in the matter which is the subject or proceedings; and
- (c) Proceedings before the ActewAGL Appeal Committee shall be conducted in such a manner as the Appeal Committee considers appropriate. The Appeal Committee is to conduct its proceedings in as informal a manner as possible, with due regard to procedural fairness and the principles of natural justice.

The Appeal Committee shall provide a recommendation to the Chief Executive, who shall review all Committee findings and make a decision on the outcome.

84 Charter of Unions Rights and Responsibilities

Union Delegates

- 84.1 A union delegate who raises a dispute under clause 80, or who is appointed as an employee's representative for the purposes of the dispute resolution process set out in clause 80, will be released from duty so that they can participate in that process.
- 84.2 To enable unions to fulfil their commitments and responsibilities in relation to consultation, duly accredited union employee delegates should have access to employees and management to discuss industrial issues, taking into account operational requirements.
- 84.3 Organisations covered by this Agreement must ensure that their workplace delegates will act at all times to further the objectives of this Agreement.
- 84.4 Where there is a situation of multiple union coverage of a class of employees, the relevant unions will act collectively in the best interests of their members.
- 84.5 ActewAGL will, within the context of operational requirements, provide reasonable facilities for accredited union delegates, including reasonable time off to undertake their duties and attend union training, use of office facilities (including photocopiers and telephones), and use of storage facilities.
- 84.6 No employee will be disadvantaged as a result of union activities conducted in accordance with this clause.

Union Training

- 84.7 In an attempt to reduce the number of disputes that occur in the workplace and streamline the dispute resolution process, union members will be given access to reasonable paid time off work to attend union training associated with issue prevention and resolution.

Leave to attend Issues Resolution in Fair Work Commission

84.8 Members and delegates of organisations covered by this Agreement will be granted a leave of absence if they are required to attend any proceedings before the Fair Work Commission (FWC) as follows:
